

Services

Consultancy / Consulting

We analyze your requirements & propose the best solutions, as well as carrying out the stages of implementation. While respecting the company culture and integrating into current system information.

Installation

Installation and setting in motion the adopted solutions, integrating them with the internal computer science and existing data

Training

Training service adapted to each client's particular requirements, in situ or in our offices. They are also periodically carried out through standard courses

Support

We have a variety of options to solve clients needs: annual, monthly contracts, based on a number of consultations, etc... Offered through different channels, our official distributors, forums, etc. Some examples are:

- Telephone
- Electronic mail (e-mail)
- Clients' support area on the web
- Frequently asked questions (FAQ)
- Video conferencing
- Fax

Projects / Customization

We have development engineers for the realization of made to measure projects. Projects have been developed in the following fields: 3D cabinet wiring, rail signalling, harnessing, composition and design of capsules, etc.

Also corporate customisation is carried out, for example generation of reports or translation of information.